

Ground

Just as the sun brings light and life,
So will I be there for you.
Never to take, all things to be to you,
Loving and true.

Just as the sun brings light and life,
It is you inspire me.
Building one another, ev'ry day,
To be truly one.

You are the ground under my feet,
You are the reason for my being,
You give such meaning to my daily walk,
I want to walk with you.

Just as the sun brings light and life,
So you are my daily light.
Loving and rusting, free and joyful,
You are my life.

Just as the sun brings light and life,
You bring comfort to my life.
God's intent is evident ev'ry day,
For we are one.

You be the ground under my feet...

Yet many there are who can't get along,
Their hurts just will not heal.
Painful are their days,
The wounds so deep they cannot go on.
Grant wisdom Lord, grant wisdom Lord.
I want to be with you

You be the ground under my feet,
You be the reason for my being,
You give such meaning to my daily walk,
I want to walk with you.
