

God is our Refuge

God is to us a Refuge and Fortress in times of trouble
He is always present for us therefore we have nothing to fear though the earth should be removed mountains be shakened and placed in the midst of the sea

Though its waters roar and be troubled and the mountains shake from the tumult in the sea (God is to us a Refuge and Fortress)
There's a river whose streams gladden God's city, the holiest place the tabernacle of the Most High God is in the midst of her she shall not be moved for God will help her at the break of dawn

Nations rage and kingdoms fall and tumble
He raised His voice, the earth melted
The Lord of hosts, He is with us
The God of Jacob, He is our refuge

Come, behold the works of the Lord our God the desolation on earth He makes wars cease to the ends of the world bows are broken and spears are cut The chariot is burned with fire
Be still and know that I am God

All nations will exalt Me exalted in all the earth
The Lord of hosts, he is with us
the god of Jacob is our Fortress
