

It Is So Long Ago

It is so long ago now,
that night in Bethlems stall,
yet daily it gives courage:
one day to Him we'll go.
He who believes in God's Son,
eternally will live on.

I yearn for steadfast faith here:
He also came for me.
He came, a little baby,
from sin to set me free.
He who believes in God's Son,
eternally will live on.

Teach us to trust You fully,
praise You on bended knee.
That we may travel safely,
until at home we'll be.
He who believes in God's Son,
eternally will live on.
