

Lord I want to praise You

Lord you are my father
You rule my head and heart
And when I met you
My whole world fell apart

Although I'm far from perfect
You knew that all along
With your love undying
You have sacrificed your son

*Lord I want to praise you
It's you who I adore
Since you entered my life I long for you evermore
Lord you are my saviour,
The rock on which I stand
And I am so grateful 'cause your love will never end*

You are our loving father
I could never have dreamed
I belong to you now
And my soul has been redeemed

And evil lost its power
You even conquered death
I know that I will meet you
When I take my dying breath

*Lord I want to praise you
It's you who I adore
Since you entered my life I long for you evermore
Lord you are my saviour,
The rock on which I stand
And I am so grateful 'cause your love will never end*
