

Ruler Over All Creation

Ruler over all creation
Father of eternity
I will celebrate Your goodness
Bow before Your majesty
Kings and queens will lift Your name
All the nations will proclaim
Holy, awesome, three in one
Who was and is and is to come

Author of an endless story
You transcend all space and time
All the earth declares Your glory
Destined to a fate sublime
Keeper of eternal light
You designed the starry night
Clouds give way the heavens sing
A song rejoicing in their King

In the pain and through the sorrow
In a valley dark as death
I know You can hear me calling
You're the only hope I have
Pick me up when I fall down
Lead me when I loose my ground
I don't have to be afraid
Sheltered in Your love's embrace

Kings and queens will lift Your name
All the nations will proclaim
Holy, awesome, three in one
Who was and is and is to come
