

Who is He to You

Born as a fragile child
He was already King
But only some saw who he was
Commander of all things

Born as the highest God
Seemed fragile and so small
And who would trust the word of God:
This child is God of all

*Lord, my shepherd, Holy, just an true
A Child that would soon be a King but what is He to You
Lord my saviour You make things anew
A child that would soon be a King but what is He to You*

Immanuel His name
And finally He came
As foretold God's Holy Son
Will make our sins undone
A ruler strong and just
So great but still a child
And can we open up your hearts
For this baby divine

*Lord, my shepherd, Holy, just an true
A Child that would soon be a King but what is He to You
Lord my saviour You make things anew
A child that would soon be a King but what is He to You*
