

Never

Heartache's comes crashing
Like a cold avalanche
The only thing warm is my tears
With reality crushing my dreams and my plans
Feels my only companion is fear

I will never never
Never forsake you
Never forsake you or leave you alone

Friendship so trusted
And the plans that we made
Now gone in the wink of an eye
With promises broken
My heart's betrayed
All alone with an echoed goodbye

I will never never
Never forsake you
Never forsake you or leave you alone

We live these moments
And we love these days
And with each blessed beat of our hearts
We're never abandoned
Even as we face
That valley so shadowed and dark

I will never never
Never forsake you
Never forsake you or leave you alone
