

Oh, what a glorious night

Can you imagine that marvelous moment,
the wonderful story unfolding
under a Bethlehem sky?
Shepherds out in the fields abiding,
hearing the jubilant tidings,
echoing from on high.

Glory! All of the heavens rang.
“Glory!” That’s what the angels sang.
Good news! Great joy!
What a glorious sight!
Oh, what a glorious night!

No doubt, most of the world never noticed the stable where Mary and Joseph were part of a beautiful scene.
Wise men, traveling over the desert,
coming to offer their treasure unto the newborn King.

Glory! All of the heavens rang.
“Glory!” That’s what the angels sang.
Good news! Great joy!
What a glorious sight!
Oh, what a glorious night,
like no other that’s ever been.
Down through the ages we’re still celebrating,
singing again and again.

Glory! Glory! Glory! Glory!
Glory! Glory! All of the heavens rang.
“Glory!” “Glory!” That’s what the angels sang.
Good news! Great joy! God with us! A Baby Boy!
What a glorious sight!
Glory! Glory! All of the heavens rang.
“Glory!” “Glory!” That’s what the angels sang.
Good news! Great joy! God with us! A Baby Boy!
What a glorious sight!
Oh, what a glorious night!
Oh, what a glorious night!
Oh, what a glorious night!
What a night!

by Kenna Turner West / Tony Wood / Don Poythress

© 2017 Wallace Poythress Music International / Wordspring Music / Tony Wood Songs / Dayspring Music / Say Amen Music (adm. by Smallstonemediasongs.com)