

O come, o come, o come, o come.

O come, holy light
with longing hearts we wait.
O quickly come with radiance bright,
and shine illuminate!

Come, Prince of Peace, and reign and justice will prevail.
Your sov'reign rule will heal all pain.
Your kingdom will not fail.

O come, Redeemer, come and end our bitter night.
Come rescue us and bring us home
to dwell with you in light.

O come, holy light

O come, holy light
restore, renew, set free.
O bring salvation, make all things right and shine eternally!

O come, holy light
O come, holy light
