

5 Forgiven. Text & music: Stein Jonassen © Continental Sound Music, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

I heard your voice calling me by name, how could this be?
Took away the guilt, the sin, my shame, I could finally see the love that flow from hands nailed to this tree before me
I looked into your eyes; saw nothing there but love

I'm forgiven, just a touch of your hand
So forgiven, clean before Him I stand
You have forgiven me, You set me free
Now I want to know your ways, saved by grace alone

Standing here close to You, your love washes over me
Healing me, strengthens me, this is where I want to be Down upon my knees before my King, give You everything
I look into your eyes; there`s nothing there but love

I'm forgiven, just a touch of your hand
So forgiven, clean before Him I stand
You have forgiven me, You set me free
Now I want to know your ways, saved by grace alone

King of glory, God almighty, how You saved me, I kneel before Thee
Heaven`s treasure, my redeemer, my righteousness alone
King of glory, God almighty, how You saved me, I kneel before Thee
Heaven`s treasure, my redeemer, my righteousness alone

I'm forgiven, just a touch of your hand
So forgiven, clean before Him I stand
You have forgiven me, You set me free
Now I want to know your ways, saved by grace alone

I`m saved by grace alone

I`m saved by grace alone

I`m saved by grace alone
