

With the sound of trumpets

With the sound of trumpets announcing from the sky:

“Jesus is coming from heaven on high!”

See now the pearly gates are open

Christ is passing, passing thru them;

All the universe is watching as the King,

our Savior King descends to take His throne.

With the sound of trumpets

Triumphant is the song!

Jesus is coming to right ev'ry wrong.

Climax of hist'ry awaited so long.

With the sound of trumpets in regal majesty

“Jesus is coming, triumphant is He!”

And in His glorious train are millions

Saints and angels, heaven's armies.

O how awesome is the great and grand display of pow'r invincible of Christ the Lord.

By His very brightness

His enemies are slain!

And all the earth's kingdoms

are now His domain

Jesus is coming, coming to reign.

With the sound of trumpets

the sound of mighty trumpets

With the sound of trumpets

The King return to reign
