hold my hand. He prom-ised to help me stand when the riv-er's too low and the riv-er's too wide, He prom-ised He would lead me to the oth-er side. He prom-ised to light may nev-er lead my feet to stray. Living in His word I will o-ver- come, stand-ing on His prom-is-es one by one.

I may have to walk through the val-ley of death.
