— in my life, Liv-in' in a world of dark-ness He came a-long and 29 brought me the light. mf If there were nev-er an-y streets of gold, nei-ther a land where we'll nev-er grow old Unison mp It's been worth just hav-ing the Lord— in my life,

Div. Liv-in' in a world of dark-ness He came a-long and brought me the light.

13 And to hear the an-gels sing? Is it just to drink from the 17 foun-tain— That nev-er shall run dry, just to live for-

Unison ev-er, ev-er and ev-er, In that sweet old by and by? But if mf

21 Div. heav-en nev-er was prom-ised to me, Nei-ther God's prom-ise to live ter-nal-ly; Unison mp It's been worth just hav-ing the Lord—

37 He's been my clos-est friend all thro' the years,

43 Unison mp And ev-'ry-time I cry He dries my tears— It's been Unison mf

41 worth just hav-ing the Lord— in my life, mf-mp Div. Liv-in' in a world of dark-ness He came a-long and brought me the light.

45 Unison Liv-in' in a world of dark-ness He came and brought me the light. Div. rit. (7)
